

BN-020 –THE BEST HOMELY HOMESTAY IN JIBHI

Most of us have often dreamt of staying in a cottage in the hills, to wake up to a river serenading us along with chirping birds.

This cottage is a dream come true for the founder and is a soulful extension of her. It is a home, built with love and careful thoughtfulness to put just about anyone at ease, instantly.

Think mud walls, minimal decor, rustic interiors, and tranquil views across glass windows. Be it Reindeer skin from Finland that adorns the walls in each of the bedrooms, or the vibrant ceramic crockery from Japan & Khurja in the kitchen – each piece that makes this cottage home has been personally sourced either locally, or internationally by the founder, who is an avid traveller.

While here, you shall not only experience the local culture but also take away heart-touching stories from across the world. Therefore, this cottage is simply a warm hug amidst the chilly winds from Jalori.

Guests can also enjoy access to the garden downstairs where a plethora of plants and trees grow. Calendula, Spinach, Lettuce, Chillies, Sweet Peas, Apples, and Roses invite butterflies for you to hang-out with. Coexistence with nature and sustainability are at the forefront of life here. Composting food waste, mindful use of water, growing vegetables and fruits, and recycling materials is a way of life.

Our Rooms

While the founder & her son live downstairs, there are two premium bedrooms on the top floor that are available for booking.

Our two exclusive premium rooms are artfully designed for both the adventurous and the solitude seeking alike. Each room is suitable for up to 4 Adults (With Extra Beds) They have a spectacular view of the valley and Jalori Pass. It is Equipped with Heater. Each room is 200 sq. ft. in size

The rooms offer peace and privacy & are equipped with heater, Wi-Fi, bed, bath and a shared veranda.

The bathrooms are classy with modern sanitary fittings and even they have a great view of the green surroundings.

Whatever it is that your soul needs, you experience it here.

FOOD AT THE COTTAGE

There's a bonfire to share tales around, and home-cooked delicacies made by the owner herself would make your trip wholesome.

From Asian to Continental cuisine all cuisines are offered here.

Indian dishes are something the host has always mastered.

The local Fiddlehead Fern (Lingdi) & True Morels (Gucchi), every item is magic made in the kitchen.

PLACES OF INTEREST NEARBY

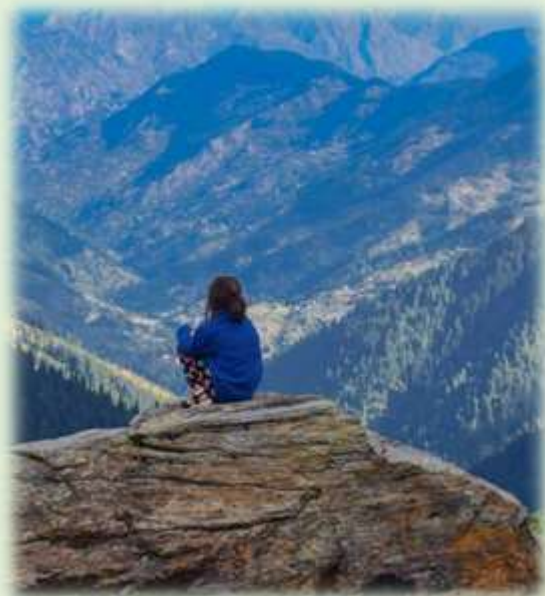

JIBHI WATERFALL

Approached through a beautiful winding walk along a narrow stream, lies the gorgeous Jibhi waterfall. The water comes falling down a steep rock face down into two circular ponds from where it cascades down into the stream. The most likely place for you to see a rainbow.

JALORI PASS & MEADOWS OF SHOJA

From Jibhi, a mere 12 km away is Jalori Pass. Approached through the steep winding national highway 305, passing through the beautiful meadows of Shoja. The drive takes about an hour and you gain an altitude of close to 1440 meters (4500 ft), the view of the valley and the surrounding mountains is breath-taking. For those who love star gazing, this is the ideal spot to lookout for the milky way.

SEROLSAR LAKE

Serolsar is a beautiful lake which is approached through a trek of about 5.5 km from Jalori pass. The lake is located at an altitude of 3199 m. It is surrounded by thick vegetation of alpine forests and the trek leading to it is through open meadows and dense oak forests.

LAMBHARI TOP

Lambhari Top is a beautiful meadow at an altitude of 3610 meters. It provides a unparalleled 360 degree view of the entire Tirthan valley as well as the snow peaks of the GHNP. Lambhari is approached through a trek which starts from Jalori Pass and usually takes 2 to 3 days with night camps along the way.

RAGHUPUR FORT

Raghupur Fort offers a 360 degree view that stretch as far as the Dhauladhar ranges. Raghupur Fort, also known as Raghupur Garh, is a ruined fort with hardly a few walls standing. Its located at 3198 meters and is approached through a 3 km trek from Jalori Pass. The walk to Raghupur Fort passes through a lovely forest and has spectacular views of the mountains.

CHENI KOTHI

The Tower Temples of Kullu Valley were built primarily as garrisoning stations. As a defensive structure that not only provided a vantage point for safeguarding the village but also served as a storage structure. This tower temple of Chaini is the tallest standing structure of its kind in the entire Western Himalayas.

Great Himalayan National Park (GHNP)

The Great Himalayan National Park (GHNP), was established in 1984 and is spread over an area of 754 sq km at an altitude of between 1500 and 6000 meters. The Great Himalayan National Park is home to a large number of plants and animal life. They are protected under the strict guidelines of the Wildlife Protection Act of 1972; hence any sort of hunting is not permitted. In June 2014, the Great Himalayan National Park was added to the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites. The Unesco World Heritage Site Committee granted the status to the park under the criteria of "outstanding significance for biodiversity conservation".

ABOUT JIBHI: A SCENIC PARADISE

A whimsically real hidden gem in the lap of the Himalayas, Jibhi is rich in natural beauty. Apple and Deodar trees adorn the lands of this tiny village. Pine trees exist in abundance, fresh water Pushp Bhadra River flows through its veins. Jibhi comes alive with its rejuvenating waterfalls, stunning variety of birds, and ever-pleasant climate.
