

SS-010 – A VIRTUAL TREEHOUSE NEAR MUNNAR

Snuggled against the backdrop of western ghats, surrounded by greenery, rediscover what being one with nature is all about. In this homestay, we focus on keeping you away from your routine life. Stay in our elevated wooden cottage. Enjoy the greenery around, hear the wind whispering to tree leaves, listen to the water flow in the estate. It is on 3.5 acres of plantation. Cardamom and Pepper is grown here. It is at a safe distance from the forest, but you can enjoy the view of the forest from the cottage.

This well-furnished contemporary cottage in the plantation will provide you a wonderful stay while enjoying the beauty of nature around. (Maybe even rediscover yourself while you are at it.). The elevated wooden cottage has a living room, a bedroom, dining and quite a big balcony on the top floor. Downstairs has an additional wood panelled bedroom. Top floor will offer you a view of the rainforests around and the bedroom down will keep you close to the nature with a view of the plantation. They say, wherever you go, go with your heart.

ACCOMODATION

This homestay is a single cottage with a top floor and ground floor. The top floor is constructed of wood. It offers a view of the forest from the balcony on one side.

The other side of the balcony spots the hill which will have waterfalls running during the monsoon.

The ground floor is a wood panelled bedroom. The bedroom offers a view of the plantation. There is a covered space next to the bedroom which offers a place to relax with a view into the plantation.

The parking space is easily accessible by the road. The cottage is approximately 100 meters climb from the parking space. The way to the cottage is concrete paved. The modern living room is well furnished and is a cosy place to kick back and relax after a fun day.

The bedroom upstairs is surrounded by foliage and greenery, you will feel that you are sleeping in an actual tree-house.
